West Michigan Multifamily

* Due to a lack of market data for 4th Quarter 2017, as well as a complete absence of transactions for institutional sized (200+ unit, typically Class B or greater) properties, it is assumed that no substantial change in property cap rates, valuations and pricing occurred during that timeframe. Overall, the market continues to show far greater demand for assets than there are properties available for purchase, which tends to favor stable or increasing prices over the 4th Quarter 2017 timeframe.
